Midlife isn't a PAUSE. It's a SHIFT.

October 2 - 3, 2026

Atlanta, GA

EXECUTIVE OVERVIEW

A DEFINED AUDIENCE.
MASSIVE PURCHASING POWER.
A STRATEGIC OPPORTUNITY FOR YOUR BRAND.

elevatePAUSE™ 2026 connects brands with women navigating midlife and actively investing in their health, wellness and longevity.

Powered by shiftHER™, this high-intent audience is making 95% of their household and personal health purchasing decisions.

THE $600B OPPORTUNITY

Our audience is not in discovery mode; they are in decision-making mode. They have the resources, the agency, and the intent to invest in solutions that support their longevity.

shiftHER™

THE OPPORTUNITY

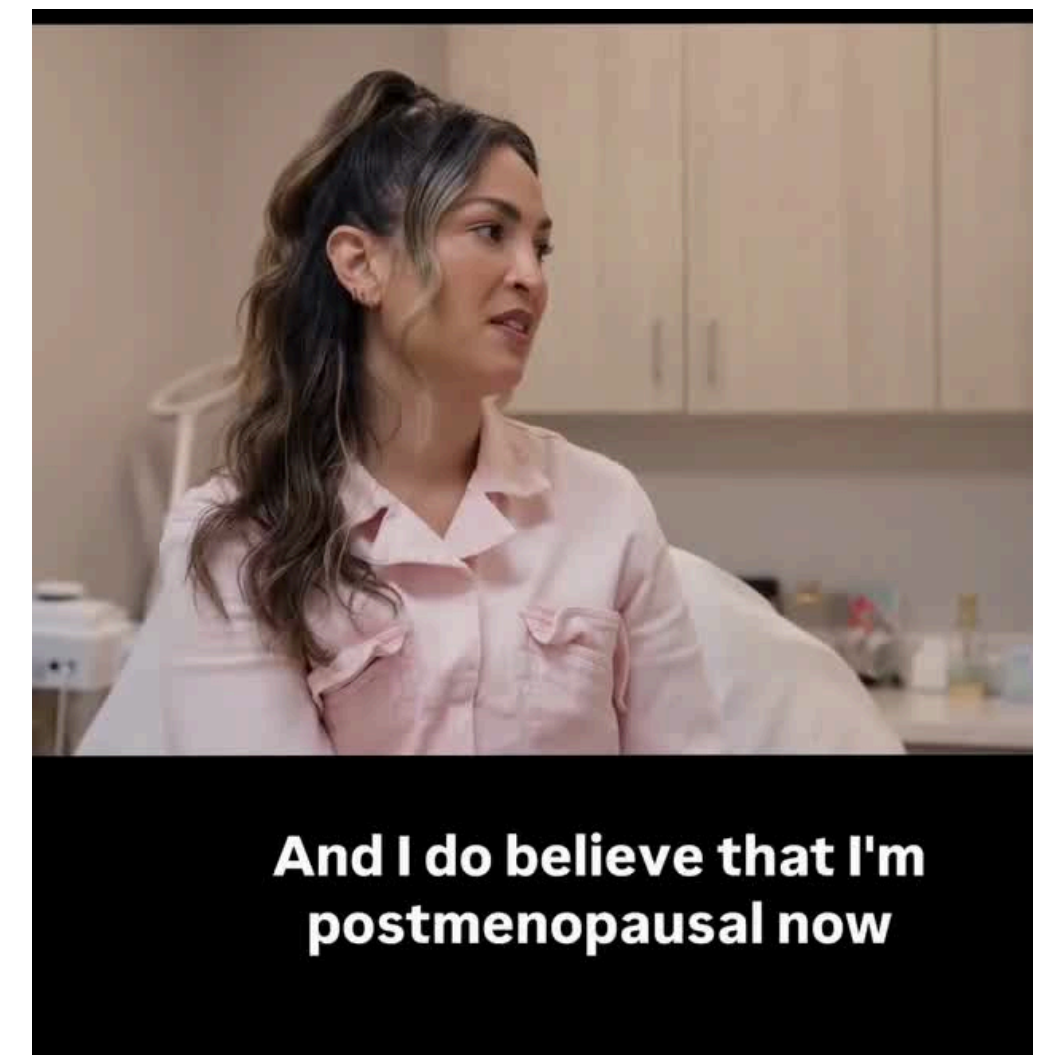

EXCLUSIVE PREMIERE. EDUCATIONAL ENGAGEMENT. FOCUSED INVESTMENT.

Following a Top 5 debut on Amazon Prime and Apple TV, the series BALANCE: A Perimenopause Journey has become part of a growing national conversation around women's midlife experiences.

elevatePAUSE™ 2026 is the exclusive Atlanta home for the regional premiere of BALANCE Episode 2, featuring Dr. Jessica Shepherd, MD, MBA, FACOG and CMO of hers, documenting two women navigating the realities, questions and transformation of perimenopause in real time.

Signature Screening Partnership Opportunity

The Signature Screening aligns sponsors with one of the most important conversations in women's health exclusive premiere through brand integration, audience engagement, and meaningful post screening dialogue.

PROOF & MOMENTUM

BUILT ON DEMAND. DESIGNED TO SCALE.

95% SELL-THROUGH AT CAPACITY

In 2024, shiftHER brought elevatePAUSE™ to Atlanta, featuring Dr. Jessica Shepherd and the launch of her book Generation M, achieving 95% sell-through a week in advance of the event.

- Strong audience demand validated expansion to a full-scale summit experience in 2026
- Increased expert participation across multiple disciplines
- Designed as both a live experience and a year-round content engine

“As a sponsor of elevatePAUSE 2024, I was in a room of like-minded women whom I wanted to meet! Everyone was there looking to take control over their health and make informed decisions about their body. I felt the sense of community the moment I walked into the room. Since elevatePAUSE, I’ve had some fabulous partnerships and opportunities come my way that I know wouldn’t have been possible if I weren’t in that room.”

- Dalarie G. - Photo Feista

Between the vendors and the panel discussions, I walked away with a deeper understanding of this phase that has helped guide me throughout this journey.”

- Fatima K.

“I’m soooo overjoyed ya’ll are doing this...I feel so heard now...”

- April G.

FEEDBACK & TESTIMONIALS

I was desperate to understand why my body was betraying me. The experts at elevatePAUSE provided so many insights and ideas. I feel better in control of my health now!

- Dana D. - The LOLA

Thank you.
I have been at a loss for so very long. I feel empowered now to take charge of my body!

- Heather G.

WHY shiftHER™

BUILT FOR A DEFINING MOMENT IN WOMEN'S MIDLIFE HEALTH

Millions of women are navigating perimenopause, menopause and surgical menopause without trusted guidance. Demand for credible guidance, expert access, and real world solutions continues to grow.

shiftHER™ equips women with the knowledge and confidence to make informed decisions about their health and future.

Why it Matters:

- 6,000 women enter menopause daily in the US.
- 64% research treatment options independently before seeing a healthcare provider.
- 54% of women ages 35-49 are actively seeking supplements to ease menopause symptoms.
- Women influence 70-80% of consumer purchase decisions in the U.S.

A small taste of elevatePAUSE™ 2024 and why shiftHER is essential for women in midlife.

YOUR CALL TO ACTION

BE EARLY. BE RELEVANT. BE TRUSTED.

We invite select partners to help women navigate midlife with trusted education, meaningful connection and actionable solutions.
